regards enjoyment it may be mentioned that the Jordan states that he planted the trees some years ago and leased them out to the Govt contractor. If the representation regarding the existence of a shop in the village as alleged by the petitioner was true, there would have been some evidence, but the Jamadar says that there is no evidence to that effect. ~~He has been given an opportunity to produce evidence.~~

2. With the D/Comment to the Excise Comnt after forwarding through the Excise accounts & Registers. Consider that the Jamadar are not entitled to Excise Revenue from todday. ——

SUBJECT.

It is represented that no mention of toddy revenue is made in the copy of the Sanad. The Inam Settlement has further reserved the right of "abkari" to the Govt. The Jogdars have moreover not produced satisfactory evidence as to the existence of the shop or the enjoyment of toddy revenue as the evidence adduced relates only for the leasing of the trees lately planted by the Inamdars to the Govt. Contractor. In these circumstances Govt, agreeing with the views of the Dy. Comm. the Excise Comm., hold that the claim of the Inamdars has not been established. They are only entitled to 1/5 of the grove farm rent according to rule 4 of the G.O no. 2074-83/Rev. 166-92 of 2/8/1907.
